

3 friends arraigned for alleged murder

THREE friends, Lekan Ajibade, 22, Afeez Arigbadu, 27 and Monsuru Bashorun, 25 were today remanded in prison for an alleged murder of a trader.

Their remand followed the request by police prosecutor, Insp. Nicholas Anieke, who told the Ebute Metta Magistrate's Court that the accused and the others at large, murdered the trader, Emeka Odomu, 28.

The offence was said to have been committed on Sept. 9, 2008 at Aja area of Lagos.

The prosecutor said that Ajibade and the deceased started the fight, but were later joined by Ajibade's friends who helped in beating the de-

30 drivers jail for road

*From SULAIMAN
AHMED MISAU, Katsina*

THIRTY drivers have been sentenced to various jail terms by the mobile court set up by Katsina State Command of the Federal Road Safety Commission.

The mobile court was presided over by a judge ceased to death.

The Magistrate, Mr R.O. Davies did not take the plea of the accused, but ordered their remand while adjourning the case until Nov. 28.

from the Federal High Court in Katsina.

The drivers whose offences centered on over loading and violation of other traffic regulations where convicted during a special patrol mounted by the officers and marshals of the FRSC.

The patrol team was headed by the Assistant Corp