

spector General of Police, the director-general State Security Service must act now to arrest and prosecute Wike for threatening the peace and security of the state.

Universities (ASUU) to call off their on-going strike and return to negotiating table with the government just as he condoled Nigeria Union of Journalists (NUJ) over he organised for Sokoto working journalists and a 20-man delegation of the peace and reconciliation foundation of Nigeria.

N2.5 billion worth of building to structure to ABU by former Defence minister, General Theophilus Danjuma was one of the meas-

A 2 killed, 3 injured as cult group strikes in Bariga

OLALEKAN OLABULO- LAGOS

TWO people were killed on Monday morning and three others severely injured as suspected cult members invaded Onile Iyan street in Sungas area of Bariga in Lagos State

The early Monday attack was said to be a reprisal attack from suspected members of Aiye confraternity from Somolu, who lost one of their members, Isiaka Oyefeso, popularly known as Soko, during a recent attack by Aiye members

The Nigerian Tribune investigations revealed that the invaders were on the trail of leaders of the Aiye group, simply identified as Tijani and Oshodi, who were alleged to have masterminded the killing of Soko.

A gang of about 30 heavily armed suspected cultists had reportedly around 3.30a.m on Monday morning, invaded 16 Onile Iyan street to avenge the death of one of them.

It was gathered that Tijani and Oshodi, who were suspected members of a rival group, lives in the building where the attack took place but in a different room.

A resident of the area who pleaded anonymity, while speaking with the Nigerian Tribune identified the deceased people as Michael and Jimoh.

The deceased persons and three others were until the incident, residing in the first room on the left side of the building, while the target stay on the last room on the same left side.

"They are boys from Somolu and Johnson in search of Tijani and Oshodi who reside in that house but unfortunately, they were not properly informed about the room of their target "the resident said.

Jimoh, a generator engineer and Michael, an electrician and three others were deeply asleep in the room, when the invaders broke into their room and shot them at close range.

Not satisfied with the shootings, the invaders used machetes and other dangerous weapons on the occupants of the room, creating serious panic among residents of the area.

Experts commend Dangote on partnership with World Economic Forum

EXPERTS have commended Dangote Industries Limited for its collaboration with the World Economic Forum (WEF) to sponsor a fellowship for Young Global Leaders from Africa.

Speaking at the 2013 Career/Founders day, hosted by The Bridge Leadership Foundation in Calabar, Cross River State, the experts noted that Dangote Group has contributed immensely to leadership development through sponsoring young people to attend sessions of the World Economic Forum.

The Bridge Leadership Foundation (TBLF), a non-profit leadership and mentoring foundation, founded by Governor Liyel Imoke of Cross River State is focused on building generations of young people educated to become compassionate, entrepreneurial and engaged citizens.

One of the speakers, Dr Ola Orekunrin, founder and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Fly Doctors Nigeria said that Dangote Group through sponsoring of young people from Africa to the WEF meetings exposes them to learn the art of leadership from leading global businessmen and statesmen. According to her, these young attendees on returning are equipped with the necessary skills to provide the right mix of leadership needed to help solve perceived loopholes and challenges in the do-

men
betw
Gove
beha
unio
Co
dent
he s
fortu
He
the
jour
died
natio
"W
lah
be t
com
Th
Nige
othe
as i
dicta
orda
jor
Chri

mest
Ov
your
als
proj
Grou
ate
(CSF
Sh
Dan
an a
ates
train
ite
plov
eral
grou
lial
top
govern
state, as the State Indep-