THE Ugboshi-ele community in Akoko-Edo Local Government Area of Edo State, was thrown into pandemonium as rain wrecked havoc, destroying property worth millions of naira, recently.

A tipper conductor also lost his life as a result of the disaster which affected houses, bridges and farm lands.

The youth president of the community, Mr Bright Oluwashanu and the secretary, Mr Kingsley Dania appealed to the state government and the local government chairman, Mr Folorunsho Akeredolu to come to their aid, saying the community had been taken over by flood, especially in Owanza area. He called on the government to assist them in order not to record more casualties of lives as the road is now a dead trap to motorists.

The rain also caused an accident as a tipper lorry with registration number BEN 370 XA loaded with sand lost control at Aiyegunle-Igarra Road and somersaulted.

It was gathered that the tipper driver was rushed to the hospital
