

and other forms of fiscal leakages in the oil and gas industry.

It also stressed that the passage and implementation will not entirely hedge against the impending oil market glut in the world.

"Enacting a competitive, inward looking Petroleum Sector Act, the PIB by the

5 killed in cult clash in Benue

JOHNSON BABAJIDE
- MAKURDI

NO fewer than five persons have been killed by cult members in Makurdi, Benue State capital

The Nigerian Tribune learnt that two of the victims were hacked down in the presence of their parents at Wadata area of the capital city on Sunday.

When our correspondent visited the area on Sunday evening, the whole area has been condoned off by policemen.

The Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Dan Ezeala who spoke with the Nigerian Tribune yesterday, confirmed that only two people were killed by suspected cult members.

The PPRO explained that one of the victims was killed in the presence of his parents while the other one was killed in a beer parlour within the metropolis.