

tion, justice, and fairness are the mainstay of Islam.

The lecturer, who is also the Chief Imam and Waziri of Auch, Edo State, pointed theistic religions, which should make us to act as siamese twins. There should be no problem between the Muslims and the Christians es, the council said N11.2 billion was used to pay the workers up to Friday, August 16.

It stated that the privati-

Downpour kills 3, damages 60 houses in Kebbi

HEAVY rain being experienced since Sunday in Birnin Kebbi, Suru and Augie Local Government Areas in Kebbi State had resulted in the death of three persons.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that the downpour damaged 60 houses and rendered no fewer than 200 people homeless.

Malam Yahaya Chindo, an Executive Director at the State Emergency Management Agency (SEMA), stated this in Birnin Kebbi on Monday during an interactive session with newsmen.

He said two people died in Mungadi, Maiyama local Government Area while 50 houses collapsed in Augie Local Government Area.

"Our findings in Jega indicate that five houses collapsed and five villages were displaced by erosion.

"In Augie Local Government Area 50 houses collapsed while four villages have been displaced by erosion," the executive director said.

He said a building also collapsed at Anguwar Sarkuna in Birnin Kebbi local Government Area, where one person died and seven others were injured.

Chindo said the agency would assist the victims adding that efforts to sensi-tise the people to the need to vacate areas identified as prone to flood would be intensified.

APC meets in A

By DARE ADEKANMBI

THERE are strong indications that the All Progressives Congress (APC) may fine-tune arrangements on the composition of its executives across all the levels this week.

Nigerian Tribune gathered authoritatively that the interim national leadership of the newly registered party has summoned a meeting of