Man kills herdsman for allegedly attempting to rape his wife

A man, Oderinde Joel and his wife are currently in police net after a Fulani herdsman, Aliu Abdulahi was shot to death by Joel for allegedly raping his wife on Saturday, August 24.

One Abdulahi Audu, who resides at Okaka village,

Sawo, Iseyin, in Oke ogun area of Oyo State, was said to have reported at Iseyin police station on Sunday, August 25, that one of his workers, Abdulahi, who was helping him to rear his cows was killed by Joel.

It was gathered that the Divisional Police Officer sent detectives to the scene and the body of the deceased was moved to General Hospital, Iseyin, for autopsy, while the dane gun used in killing the herdsman was also recovered.

The suspect was reported to have admitted shooting the deceased when his wife raised the alarm on the farm that the deceased accosted her and forcefully raped her.

Crime Reports learnt that the pellets of the gun penetrated the deceased from the back, which was an indication that he was trying to run away from the suspect.

Confirming the story, the State Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Olabisi Ilobanafor, said the case had been transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Iyaganku, for further investigation.
