TROOPS of the 7 division Nigerian Army in Maiduguri, has continued to carry out attacks on the Boko Haram terrorists camp killing several insurgents and destroying their camps.

Residents of Maiduguri, who were travelling to Damaturu on Wednesday, were made to turn back by other travellers who claimed that they saw the insurgent in their number crossing the highway road at Benisheikh town of Kaga Local Government Area, where insurgents have been attacking travellers in the past.

According to them, the insurgent were seen hurrying as they cross.

Speaking to newsmen on behalf of the 7 division Nigerian Army, Captain Aliyu Danja confirmed the story stating that at about 11:00 a.m troops of 7 division Nigerian Army supported by the men of the Nigerian Air force with helicopter gunfire attacked and destroyed the Boko Haram camp in Goho village, in Mainok general area.

Captain Danja said several terrorists were killed while others fled to another town in Marguba village and troops pursued the terrorists, destroyed the camp while several were killed and others fled.

He also confirmed that the insurgents, who fled crossing road Maiduguri, Damaturu at Benisheikh were heading north towards Gubio and troops were still in pursuit of the terrorists.

The Boko Haram have declared war on Nigeria and Nigeria should declare total war on them. It looks like the state of emergency won't solve the problem. There should be a declaration of a state of war in Kano, Borno and Yobe states. All the so called northern leaders should not be listened to. What have they done in the last three years despite the fact that they know all these people and their leaders. The use of armoured vehicles won't do the job properly but heavy military tanks. The use of advance military intelligence to monitor their movement and locations to pursue and destroy them.
