

harassment

which he threatened to beat her up.

"He also harassed the victim sexually and asked her to have sex with him, before her property could be released," he said.

Chinyere, on the other hand, was alleged to have assaulted Davids for having her husband arrested.

The alleged offences contravene Sections 171, 262 and 285 of the Criminal Laws of Lagos State, 2011.

However, the couple pleaded not guilty to the charges.

The magistrate, Mrs A.O. Layinka, granted Chinyere bail on self recognition, being a pregnant woman and ordered that she should sign an undertaking to always be present in court.

She also granted Mayford bail in the sum of N100, 000 with two sureties in like sum and adjourned the case till February 10, 2014.

Woman in court over murder of 2-yr-old son

AN Ebute Meta Magistrate's Court in Lagos State has remanded a woman, Titilayo Oladele, in prison over alleged murder of her two-year-old son, Opeyemi.

Oladele, who is 20 years old and who resides at No. 23, Imota Street, Ikorodu, Lagos State, is facing a one-ount charge of unlawful killing.

The magistrate, Miss Y.B. Okusanya, ordered that the accused be remanded in custody, pending advice from the Office of the State Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP).

She adjourned the case till February 3, 2014, for mention. Earlier, the prosecutor, Corporal Cyriacus Osuji, had told the court that the accused committed the offence on November 16, at Ajagunro Imota in Ikorodu, Lagos.

According to him, the accused was impregnated by an unknown person, who subsequently refused to take responsibility of the child.

"The child often fell sick and the accused didn't have money to take care of him.

"She thus strangled the baby," the prosecutor said.

Osuji said that an eyewitness saw the accused when she wanted to drop the deceased in the bush and reported the matter to the police.

The prosecutor said that the offence contravenes Section 221 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2011.