

humanity in positive ways, the statement read.

Ugborodo: 2 feared dead in renewed clash

EBENEZER ADUROKIYA -WARRI

THE recently-achieved peace in Ugborodo community, Warri South-West Local Government Area, Delta State, was, on Thursday, ruptured as renewed infighting between two factions allegedly claimed two lives.

This is barely three weeks after leaders of the warring factions signed the Federal Government's agreement to return peace to the community for the commencement of the Gas City Project.

A youth leader, who fled from the crisis on Thursday to Warri at the wake of the fighting, informed journalists that one of the warring factions mobilised some mercenaries to unleash the mayhem.

According to the source, the hoodlums allegedly invaded Madangho in one Toyota Hilux and a bus and engaged the community youth in a bloody clash.

Akingbola loses bid to quash charge

AN Ikeja, Lagos State High Court, on Friday, dismissed an application filed by a former Managing Director of the

GOVERNORSHIP candidate

Labour Party in the June

He lamented that has been sustained.