

Youths mob govt official over kinsman's death

KOLAWOLE DANIEL -ABUJA

Youths from Ifira-Akoko in Akoko South East Local Government Area of Ondo State, on Tuesday beat the administrative secretary of the Ondo State Local Government Service Commission, Mrs Odunayo Ketiku over the death of a Commissioner in the Commission, Alhaji Kasali Busari.

The youths were said to have beaten the woman blue black, during the burial service conducted for Busari, an indigene of the community.

The development has, however, led to a crisis between the two unions in local government sector in the state, the National Union of Local Government Employees (NULGE) and the Association of Local Government Employees.

It was gathered that the youths alleged that Ketiku knew about the death of Busari, who was said to have slumped and died around 2.00 a.m, during an interview session conducted for those to be promoted to the rank of Director of Local Government Administration (DLGA).

The LGSC commissioner was said to have been sick as his health deteriorated, causing him to slump, during the interview session.
