THE principal of the Federal Technical College, Doma, Doma Local Government Area of Nasarawa State, Alhaji Lawal Ahmed and two others were on Thursday night and shot to death by armed robbers on Doma -Lafia road.

Saturday Tribune learnt that the incident happened around 7:30a.m. when the victims were returning home.

Sources said they ran into men of the underworld, who had positioned themselves for their victims.

It was further gathered that the robbers, who started shooting sporadically when they sighted the principal's car with a view to scaring the villagers, later opened fire on the principal's vehicle which resulted to the death of three persons.

The Public Relations Officer (PRO) of the school's Parents Teachers Association (PTA), Mr. Adamu Umaru Omaku, confirmed the incident to Saturday Tribune, saying the late principal and two other victims were shot by armed robbers.

Mr. Omaku said he was notified of the incident around 8:00p.m when the officials of the National Union of Road Transport Workers (NURTW) took the corpses to a private hospital.

Saturday Tribune also learnt that the late principal was on his way back home after attending to the parents of Senior Secondary School (SSS 2) student, Jibrin Isah, who was allegedly stabbed by his colleague, Usman Shamsudeen.

It was gathered that the late principal stayed late so as to resolve the issue. Investigations also revealed that the matter almost caused confusion within the school's premises before it was brought under control by the school management.

While confirming the incident at the Police headquarters, the state's Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Ismaila Numan, an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP), said investigation has commenced on the incident.

Meanwhile, the state joint security committee, on Friday, dismissed reports that two persons were killed in a fracas between Eggons and Gwandara in Lafia, the state capital, on Thursday.
