ONE out of a two-man armed robbery syndicate that specialised in using motorbikes to rob unsuspecting passengers was, on Wednesday, killed by vigilante operatives at Nkpor, near Onitsha, Anambra State.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that the robber met his Waterloo when they stormed a filling station, along old Onitsha-Enugu Road, Nkpor, and robbed the pump attendants at gun-point.

As they were speeding off with their loot, they were trailed by the security outfit of the said filling station.

It was gathered that the security operatives killed one of them while the other escaped with bullet wounds.

Confirming the incident, the Divisional Police Officer, DPO, in charge of Ogidi Police Station, Mr Isa Abubakar, said that investigation on the matter is still ongoing.
