A police inspector, attached to Keana Divisional Police Headquarters (DPH), Ibrahim Adamu and three other persons were, on Monday morning, ambushed by yet to be identified gunmen at Agwan-Mamman community in Obi Local Government Area of Nasarawa State.

The victims, according to the Nigerian Tribune findings, were travelling in a commercial bus to Keana Local Government Area, when the attackers ambushed them and set them, alongside the vehicle ablaze.

Investigations further revealed that two of the victims were burnt beyond recognition, while one Mohammed Ozawose (Moye Alushi) who was rushed to Obi Hospital died while receiving treatment.

When contacted on phone, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Ismaila Numan, an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP), confirmed the incident, saying investigation has commenced to bring the culprits to justice.
