The Kogi State Police Command has revealed how three Fulani herdsmen killed two people, alleging that they stole one of their cows.

The two deceased have been declared missing, since June, this year, when the dastardly act was carried out and were unknown to have been killed, until October this year, when a report was made to the police.

The deceased, who lived at Fulani Camp, Zango Daji Lokoja are Abubakar Shuaib and Hari, whose other name is unknown

The suspects, Mohammed Baushe, Isah Isiaku and Saleh Isah were paraded at the weekend, by the Kogi State police Commissioner, Mr Paul Okafor

The prime suspect, Mohammed Baushe had called the deceased very early in the morning of June 11, 2014 to meet him somewhere and since that time, both of them did not return, until his arrest.

Mohammed, when asked the reason behind the alleged killing said, "We killed them because they stole our cow, only one."

The Commissioner disclosed that "on October 11, 2014, one Aisha Shaibu reported at D Police Division that on June 28, 2014, at about 6.00 a.m., that Mohammed Buashe called the deceased to meet him and they did not return until October 10, 2014."

He added that investigation led to the arrest of the suspects, who confessed to have jointly killed the deceased and decided not to make it known, because they allegedly stole their cow.
