

Police kill 1, arrest 2 for robbery in Delta

ALPHONSUS AGBORH-ASABA

TWO robbery suspects have been arrested by the police for attacking Olihe Oil Petrol Station in Urho-nigbe area, along Agbor-Abraka Road in Delta State, last Thursday.

Also, the police in the state have killed a highway robber along Kwale-Og-washi-Uku Road.

Nigerian Tribune

gathered that the two suspected robbers, one Ibiang Ofem, 33-year-old and Sunday England, were nabbed when men of the police while conducting a stop and search operation, recovered an English pistol and one single barrel gun from them shortly after the robbery incident.

According to the acting Police Public Relations Officer, ASP Roland Preston, the police had a gun duel with the highway robbers at Ollor axis of the Og-washi-Uku-Kwale Road.

One of the robbers, who sustained fatal injuries later died on the way to the hospital while others escaped.

My relationship