Painful end for Oyo notorious robbers

THREE notorious armed robbers who attacked and dispossessed a family of their valuables at Mabolaje area of Oyo town few hours to the last Eid-el-Kabir had met their unfortunate end, according to the Oyo State command.

The state police command disclosed at a press conference that the robbers met their end at the hands of the operatives of Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS).

The three armed robbers, whose identities were unknown, were said to have robbed the household of one Adeniran (surname withheld) at gun point. According to the Commissioner of Police in Oyo State during a press briefing recently, the Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS), Oyo/Ogbomoso annex received information at about 9 p.m. on Friday, October 3, 2014 that five armed robbers had invaded the residence of Adeniran and had dispossessed him and his household of a Toyota Corolla car with registration number FKY 523 QB, the sum of N375,000, phones and other valuables.

Based on the report, Mr Shodipo said, the SARS operatives went towards the direction they were told the hoodlums took and engaged them in a gun duel, resulting in three of them sustaining serious gun injuries while two escaped. The injured suspects reportedly gave up the ghost while being taken to the hospital for medical attention.

Recovered from them were one double barrel pistol, one single barrel pistol, 10 live cartridges, four expended cartridge shells and two toy guns.

Crime Reports learnt that before the armed robbers stormed the house, they had earlier called Adeniran's wife on the phone, telling her that they had details about her and were going to kill her. When she asked them what her offence was, the hoodlums were said to have dismissed her, threatening to get her even if she thought she would hide. She was said to have reported the threat to the police.

On Friday, October 3, 2014, the woman was at home with her husband in preparation for Sal-lah the following day. She was said to have sent some of her relations with her on an errand and as they were entering the gate of their residence, the armed robbers who were already lurking in the dark, followed them in at about 8.50 p.m.

It was further gathered that they started asking for the woman, demanding for N6.5 million. By that time, some of those in the house, including the woman, went to hide while they quickly put a call through to their relations that armed robbers were in their house. The armed robbers reportedly collected N75,000 from the woman's husband, fished the woman out and collected N300,000 from her but still demanded more, threatening to kill her and her husband.

They were said to have collected the key of the woman's car and left, while one of them who had their loot with him went away on foot. Crime Reports learnt that by the time the incident was reported at SARS, Oyo and the operatives went to the scene, the hoodlums had left. Not deterred by this, the SARS operatives gave them a chase though they could not shoot immediately because they were in a residential area.

But by the time they got to an environment that was not residential, the armed robbers who saw that the police were determined to get them started firing shots. These were replied by the police, and the driver among the hoodlums was the most hit. He was said to have lost control of the car, hitting an electric pole.

They were immediately rounded up by the operatives and taken to hospital but died before they could get medical attention. The police commissioner stated that there was serious manhunt for the fleeing member of the gang.

44-yr-old impregnates 12-yr-old in Warri ...Another 39-year-old defiles 2-year-old in Asaba

EBENEZER ADUROKIYA - WARRI

A 44-year-old Augustine Edafiaka has been nabbed for putting in the family way a 12-year-old girl living in his neighborhood.

Randy Edafiaka himself is a father of five and whom are two teenage daughters.

The victim has been discovered to be three months old pregnant.

Crime Reports gathered that the step mother of the young girl had drawn the attention of the girl's father to some physiological changes in the 12-year old including an enlarging bust line and hips, as well as a new sleeping culture which he had earlier ignored.

Sensing some veracity of the changes, he dragged his daughter to a medical lab for tests which eventually indicated that she was 32 weeks old pregnant.

On enquiry by her family members, the girl revealed how Edafiaka, their neighbour, had been having a carnal knowledge of her each time her step mother was away.

She revealed how she was tipped with between N1,000 and N1,500 each time the act was carried out and was also warned by Edafiaka not to disclose the clandestine escapade to anyone.

Wife of the randy victim and step mother to the victim also revealed in her statement that she had been suspicious of a strange understanding between the young girl and her husband.

However, when he was confronted, the accused was said to have initially denied the allegation, but later admitted when he found himself colling off in a police cell at B Division, Warri, Delta State.

Members of his family were said to began to plead for an out-of-court settlement after he eventually confessed to the crime.

Crime Reports also gathered that the family members of the girl are insisting on two options: either accused should marry the girl by paying the full bride price according to Urhobo tradition or he faces the full weight of the law.

Meanwhile, it was reliably gathered that the accused has been granted bail after coughing up N100,000 at the police station.

In a related development, a 39-year-old carpenter, Gbanga Anaorin, has been arrested by operatives of the Delta State Police Command for defiling a two-year-old girl on October 5.

Crime Reports further gathered that father of the victim, on noticing her daughter crying over some excruciating pains in her private part when urinating, inquired of what was wrong.

To his chagrin, the little girl told him father that one Gbanga Anaorin, aged 39 years, who was working in their compound as a carpenter, had had a carnal knowledge of her.

Enraged by the discovery, father of the girl headed for the Police Station Okpanam, Asaba, where the accused was later arrested and detained to be in further investigations.

Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Celta Kalu, who confirmed the stories in a statement said further investigations were on with a view to charging the accused in court.
