

Merry makers enjoying themselves with different types of rides at the Wonderland Amusement Park, beside the National Stadium, Abuja, during the holidays.

Explosion kills 2 in Adamawa

A blast suspected to be from an Improvised Explosive Device (IED), on Sunday, claimed two lives in Dahlehi Community in the Maiha Local Government Area of Adamawa State.

The chairman of the local government, Alhaji Mohammed Jibrilla, confirmed the development in an interview with the News Agency of Nige- ria (NAN) in Yola.

He said the incident occurred when some youths lit fire to warm themselves because of Hammatan cold but mistakenly added a leather object they picked by the roadside containing a strange object.

He said the leather object, suspected to be an abandoned IED, exploded, killing two of the youth.

"The development was followed by an explosion which killed one person on the spot while the second died shortly before admission at the Yola Specialist Hospital.

"Two other injured youths are now on admission in the hospital."

Jibrilla advised the public to be vigilant and to report any strange object to the authorities.

NAN reported that Maiha Local Government was one of the local governments recovered recently from insurgents by the military.

When contacted, the Adamawa State Police Public Relations Officer, DSP. Othman Abubakar, confirmed the incident but did not give details.

would put an end to internal wrangling and power tussle in the area.

He said for the two former arch rival parties to come together to form one big family would symbolically shame the opposition, stressing that the unification indicated a win-win situation for the former rival parties in Idanre with the political gladiators in the parties now under one umbrella.

He thus charged members of the party to go into their wards and canvass for support for the candidacy of President Jonathan and ensure that votes were delivered maximally for him next month.

Fasehun launches Jonathan's re-election campaign

ity that, where we should leashed the dogs of war in