A middle-aged man, Olasunkanmi Ayodele, has lost his life after he got trapped under a collapsed building at Ayegun area of Apete in Ido Local Government Area of Oyo State.

The building, which is still under construction, belongs to Rembola Group of Schools.

According to an eyewitness who craved anonymity, the uncompleted building is a proposed school hall which deck suddenly broke down while late Ayodele was working at the site.

It was gathered that Ayodele died before help could come to his rescue.

The eyewitness further informed the Nigerian Tribune that the cause of the collapse might not be unconnected with the usage of substandard materials.

The corpse of the 31-year-old Ayodele is still lying at Adeoyo State Hospital mortuary, where an autopsy is expected to be carried out on it.
