A retired assistant director with the Bauchi State Ministry of Animal Resources, Tukur Mohammed, was, on Saturday morning, killed on the Azare-Bulkachuwa road when he was knocked down by an oncoming vehicle.

The late Mohammed, 61, according to a statement released by the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) in charge of the Bauchi State Police Command, DSP Haruna Mohammed, parked his Chevrolet car by the road side and was trying to open the boot of his car when he was knocked down by a Honda Element.

According to the statement, the deceased was knocked down by one Maigari Mohammed, 52, and a staff member of the Ministry of Interior, Abuja.

"On the 14/3/15 at about 11:00hrs, there was a fatal motor vehicles accident along Azare-Bulkachuwa road, Bauchi State."

"The accident occurred when the driver of a Chevrolet light green with registration number AH 471-KTG, one Tukur Mohammed, male, 61 years, of Nasarawa 'A' Azare LGA and also a retired Assistant Director at the Ministry of Animal Resources, Bauchi State, who parked by the road side and was trying to open his boot when all of a sudden a pink coloured Honda Element vehicle with registration number JJJ 130 BM driven by one Maigari Mohammed male and 52 years of Ministry of Interior, Abuja, knocked him down. As a result, victim died on the spot while the Honda driver sustained injury," the police spokesman stated.

DSP Mohammed further stated that a police patrol team attached to Azare division visited the scene of the accident and rushed casualties to the Federal Medical Centre (FMC) in Azare for medical attention and postmortem examination.

He, however, said investigation into the accident was still in progress.
