

Idowu-Fearon, has called on President Muhammadu Buhari, to end the menace of Boko Haram insurgency in six months.

Idowu-Fearon maintained that this was possible if the President could sanitise the Armed Forces and equip them adequately.

The Bishop made this known at the 20th Synod of the church in Kaduna.

He warned the President to steer clear of any recommendation that he might have inherited from his predecessor, President Goodluck Jonathan, in order to achieve quick and

Miss Tope Olajide receiving her cup of Preaching Competition from Pastor O. Olayemi at the Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG), Oyo 8 Teens and children Festival of Life 2015, held at sports complex, Lead City University, Ibadan, on Friday. PHOTO: ALOLADE GANIYU

Pipeline vandals kill 3 police officers, tanker driver

AYODELE ADESANMI-LOKOJA

THREE police men and a tanker driver were reportedly killed, on Saturday night, by suspected bunkerer, at Oguda area of Okene council area of Kogi State.

However, the identity of the tanker driver is not yet ascertained.

Oguda is a boundary site between Kogi and Edo states, which is a haven for bunkerers who normally siphon petroleum products from the Nigeria National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC) pipeline.

A source informed that what happened could not be immediately ascertained, but added that it might be gun duel between the police and the bunkerers who carried out their activities in the

Jigawa APC govt to amend 2015 budget

ADAMU AMADU-DUTSE

ment to running an open before the recovery we are seeing today."

BY TUNDE OGUNESAN

AN Islamic cleric, Prince Nureni Oyetunde, has advised Nigeria's president, Muhammadu Buhari, to be conscious of some politicians around who are wolves but wear sheep skin.

Prince Oyetunde, popularly known as 'Baba Suuru,' said though the President meant well for this country, some notable politicians around him have hidden agenda against the president's wish.

"President Buhari should