Petrol tanker explodes kills 5, injures 6 in Kebbi (/content/petrol-tanker-explodes-kills-5-injures-6-kebbi)

A fully loaded petrol tanker exploded at Dabai in Kebbi State, on Saturday, killing five people and injuring six others.

The tanker, according to an eyewitness, was heading to Mahuta in Kebbi when the driver lost control of the vehicle on the hilly Dabai junction. This resulted in the tanker falling over and exploding.

About 12 houses and some vehicles parked by the roadside were destroyed by the fire that ensued from the explosion.

The Dabai – Suru and Dabai – Mahuta road junction also serves as a market, especially for fresh fruits.

Kebbi State deputy governor, Alhaji Samaila Yombe, who also hails from Dabai, was among early visitors to the scene of the accident.

Yombe condoled with relatives of the victims, the emir of Zuru, Alhaji Sani Sami; and the chairman of Zuru Local Government Area, Alhaji Ibrahim Rumu.

He pledged to offset the medical bills of those injured in the accident.

The deputy governor said the State Emergency Management Agency had been directed to provide prompt relief material for those who lost shops, household properties and livestock and food crops to the inferno.
