1 dies in accident involving FRSC truck (/content/1-dies-accident-involving-frsc-truck)

Written by: Banji Aluko - Benin City

ONE person died in Benin on Saturday after a tow truck belonging to the Edo State Command of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) and two other vehicles were reportedly hit by a fuel-laden tanker around the Ovia River on the Benin-Ore expressway.

Edo Sector Commander of the FRSC, Mr Oluwasusi Familoni, said the impact resulted into an inferno, setting ablaze the affected vehicles.

He, however, said that only the driver of the tanker died out of four people, who were involved in the accident, adding that the towing vehicle was towing the affected vehicles when the incident occurred.

He regretted the loss of life and the property, pointing out that the tow truck was worth millions of naira and was donated to the FRSC by the World Bank in 2014.

He said, "a tanker loaded with PMS ran into the FRSC tow truck while it was evacuating two vehicles involved in an auto crash along the Ovia River slope on the Benin-Ore road.

"The tanker driver was burnt to death while the driver of the tow truck sustained injuries.

"There was no casualty recorded in the auto crash involving the two vehicles that were being towed by the Tow truck".
