

her brother's sister, said the corpse had been deposited in the morgue of Mary Assumpta Catholic Hospital, investigation into the suicide to unravel the circumstances surrounding the incident.

Alloythius Omalu, commended the military in the fight against insurgents in the Northern part of the country.

appointed was a clear case of round peg in a round hole.

The group said it was sure now that the fight against the dreaded Boko Haram would soon be a thing of the past.

According to him, with the track records of those appointed, the group was convinced that the Nigerian Army would regain its place of pride on the continent.

Osabinu said: "With the track records of this men, their integrity and high moral standard, we are convinced that with the co-operation of Nigerians at all level, Nigeria will definitely conquer insecurity and the lost glory of Nigeria Military will be restored soonest."

Police kill 2 suspected robbers in a shoot-out

SAM NWAOKO - ADO-EKITI

THE police in Ekiti State, on Wednesday, killed two suspected robbers in a gun duel.

It was gathered that suspected robbers, which witnesses claimed were Fulanis, had laid siege on Ikere-Ekiti-Akure Road, on Tuesday afternoon and were said to have taken over the road until the police moved in.

While some of the witnesses claimed that the robbers had killed one of their victims, others said they were not aware of any death.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Mr Alberto Adeyemi, who confirmed the development, assured that the police were working round the clock to make all Ekiti roads safe.

The police spokesperson said: "In our quest to rid Ekiti roads of criminals, the DPO of Ikere and Safer Highway Patrol team got information that robbers were attacking commuters along Ikere-Akure Road. They swung into action and chased the robbers to their hideout along Akure Road.

"The robbers, on sighting the police, engaged our men in gun battle. In the process, two of the robbers were gunned down and one of them arrested. The arrested suspect is helping us in our investigations.

Tri-