Police arrest 12 cultists in Nasarawa

ADEMOLA ADEGBITE
- LAFIA

NASARAWA State police command has arrested 12 suspected cult members, after the killing of one Mohammed Abdullahi, popularly known as London.

Police source told the Nigerian Tribune, on Wednesday, that the victim was macheted to death at Tundun Kauri, in Lafia Local Government Area of the state.

When contacted on phone in Lafia, the state capital, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Ismaila Numan, confirmed the arrest, saying the victim died as a result of injuries sustained during the attack.

According to him, "Mohammed Abdullahi died as a result of injuries on his chest, head and the hand after he was attacked by cult members with machete and sticks. The victim was rushed to the Dalhatu Araf Specialist Hospital (DASH), Lafia, where he was confirmed dead."

He confirmed that five suspects were initially arrested in conjunction with the crime by men on beat duty at Labuna function, Lafia, while fleeing the scene of the crime.

He said further investigations led to the arrest of seven others.
