Two members of an armed robbery gang that have been terrorising residents of AMAC Estate along Airport Road in Abuja in the last four months, on Wednesday, met their Waterloo when they were killed during an exchange of gunfire with policemen.

Also, an Israeli national said to be working with a construction company in Abuja was killed by suspected kidnappers in a community known as WASA, after the Apo Mechanic Village at about 8.30 a.m. on Wednesday.

Eyewitness told Tribune Online that the Israeli national and other expatriate workers of the company were on their way to a construction site when four young men suddenly double crossed their car, forced him out and attempted to force him into their Toyota salon car.

He, however, resisted their moves and, in the process, he was shot dead.
