17 dead as explosions hit Buhari Housing Estate

TWO female suicide bombers killed 17 people, including themselves, at a mosque located at the quarters of Ministry of Housing and at another location within Buhari Housing Estate in Damaturu, Yobe State capital, on Wednesday.

According to AP, the incidents occurred around

6.00 a.m. when people were observing early morning prayers.

"One of the suicide bombers gained entry into the mosque and detonated explosives and the other bomber was sighted roaming around the compound and (when) asked questions, she too detonated explosives," Ibrahim

Musa, a resident said.

Musa Idi, executive secretary, State Emergency Management Agency (SEMA), also confirmed the attacks to reporters, but did not give details of the casualties.

The injured are currently being treated at the Sani Abacha Specialist Hospital, still in Damaturu, according to Channels Television.
