

tip-off.

"Police operatives attached to Maitama Division, acting on a tip-off, arrested one fake Colonel (name withheld) who claimed to be the Special Adviser to the President on Defence Matters,"

Man killed, dumped in dustbin

ANTHONY UBONG - CALABAR

THE mangled body of a young man said to be 22-year-old was on Monday found in a dustbin on Edgerly Street in Calabar South Local Government Area of Cross River State.

Residents of the area who identified the body removed it to Edibe-Edibe

Road where parents of the deceased reside.

When contacted, Police Public Relations Officer, Hogan Bassey, said he was yet to be briefed about the killing, and could therefore not speak.

Relatives said around 8:00 p.m. the deceased, whose name was given simply as Etebong, who is very popular in the neighbourhood, was with his friends near his home when he received a call from his girlfriend.

"Etebong was with us when we were drinking. Later, he received a call and said it was his girlfriend that called, inviting him over to her house," said his friend, Samuel Etfiong.

A family source said Etebong called later in the night asking if power has been restored, but when he was told it has not, he then said he would not return till the following morning.

Etebong's mother fainted when she heard of the news.

of 5c Oshosha Street, Off Olisa Street, Ijebu Ode, Ogun State, lost my international passport on my way going to Lagos Garage, Ijebu Ode, on October 6, 2015 around 12 noon.

Please, if found, take it to the nearest police station in Lagos while delivering his welcome address during this year's Olokun Festival lecture entitled: 'Culture, cultural heritage and modernity in Nigeria: Any clash?'

The OPC leader lamented that in Nigeria today, parents no longer care about

He said with the present security situation occasioned by recent bombings in some parts of the country, "violators of the warning will be made to face the wrath of the law."