

the constituents to the 2016 budget preparations of the state. Other demands made by those in attendance at the parley among others were the completion of Palm-groove/ Pedro Road, a less than 1km road which had been on since 2011, award of Kusa Road and other inner roads for construction and establishment of recreation centres.

Two men in fight of death, burn each other houses

OLALEKAN OLABULO

men. Three houses comprising a room each were also destroyed in a fire incident that accompanied the clash between the two men. Lagos Metro gathered that the two men had a serious misunderstanding between them leading to fistcuffs. It was further gathered that one of them set his neighbour's house on fire and the angry neighbour responded in like manner. Another house was engulfed in the fire and the three houses were completely destroyed before fire fighters could arrive at the scene. Not satisfied with the burning houses the war-ringing men went for cutlasses and knives with which they stabbed each other, leading to the death of one of them. The other was severely injured and had to be rushed to the hospital by operatives of the Lagos State Fire Service who arrived at the scene to put out the fire.

SAVED FOUR VEHICLES, TWO Toyota Camry cars, Toyota Sequoia and Sienna bus from his late friend, with the competent", "weak" and "full of excuses."

Known for its hard-hitting analyses on issues of global importance, the Economist in its just released November edition described Lagos as being "among the most notori-

THE Lagos State government will on Thursday, November 12, 2015 increase high capacity buses by 434 when the Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) extension from Mile 12 to Ikorodu is flagged off for operation. The transport project Lagos State governor, implemented by the Lagos Metropolitan Area Transport Authority (LAMATA) includes widening of the road with two additional lanes and the placing of BRT lanes in the middle of the road. Lagos State governor, Mr. will on Thursday, November 12, 2015 increase high capacity buses by 434 when the Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) extension from Mile 12 to Ikorodu is flagged off for operation. The transport project Lagos State governor,

SAVED FOUR VEHICLES, TWO Toyota Camry cars, Toyota Sequoia and Sienna bus from his late friend, with the