

presently, alleging that INEC and the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) rigged the elections against the people's mandate and the hope of reclaiming the mandate at the tribunals appeared dim.

Police kill 2 robbery suspects, arrest 2 kidnap suspects in Delta

EBENEZER ADUROKIYA - WARRI

TWO armed robbery suspects have met their Waterloo during a gun duel with the police in Warri, Delta State.

The suspects, with the aid of a tricycle, attacked one Mr Elogbunama Enyang Edifion and other persons at Effurun roundabout, near Warri.

They were said to have already dispossessed the victims of their belongings such as laptops and assorted handsets before they were intercepted by operatives of the Nigeria Police from Ekpan Division, who were on patrol.

The gun battle that ensued saw two of the four robbery suspects killed, while two others, it was gathered, escaped.

One cut-to-size locally-made pistol, two live cartridges and laptops and different handsets were recovered from them, while the police are on the trail of the fleeing suspects.

In a related development, the police in the state have arrested two kidnap suspects as well as rescued two victims at Udu Road, Aladja, near Warri.

NDLEA arrests journalist, 5 other suspected drug traffickers at Lagos airport

Agency (NDLEA),