

Gunmen kill 2, injure others in Port Harcourt

UDUAKABASI PATRICK-PORT HARCOURT

GUNMEN suspected to be armed robbers on Monday killed two and injured scores of people around Emenike Mile two axis of Port Harcourt.

Nigerian Tribune

gathered that the gunmen, allegedly returning from an operation, heard gun shots by the police.

When the armed robbers noticed police presence around the area, it was gathered that they started shooting sporadically into the air which made innocent people in the area take to their heels.

An eyewitness, Amina James told Nigerian Tribune that a bus conductor, who was going about his business, was also killed by the stray-bullet.

"I went to submit the sales I made from my business for that day, when I heard the gunshot. When I turned back, people were already running helter-skelter, before I knew what was happening a stray-bullet from the armed robbers has penetrated the buttock of a girl. She was suddenly rushed to the hospital," she said.

Efforts to contact the Police Public Relations Officers at news time was not successful.
