

85-yr-old n •Head, intestine

By OLUWATOYIN MALIK

POLICE detectives from Oyo State Police Command are currently on the trail of murderer(s) of an 85-year-old man, Pa Raheem Oyeniyi, who was killed in the early hours of Thursday, December 31, 2015, in his house at Oke Apo area of Oyo town.

Information gathered revealed that the headless body of the deceased was found in his house by his relations who went to check on him when they noticed that he was not in the mosque for Subhi prayers.

Closer look by the relations also revealed that late Pa Oyeniyi's intestines and manhood were missing, while his scrotal sac was also emptied of its two testes.

Sunday Tribune learnt that the incident was reported at Durbar police station at about 7.30a.m by the Baale of Oke Apo community, Chief Waheed Oyeniyi and the deceased's son, Afeez Oyeniyi.

One of the deceased's nephew (names withheld), who is strongly suspected to be involved in the murder, was reported to have arrived Pa Oyeniyi's house in the evening of December 30, 2015, and was ushered into the house by the deceased when he saw that he stayed outside.

Reports had it that the nephew was mentally unstable, while some other sources said that he was an Indian hemp addict. He had been nowhere to be found since the incident occurred.

Detectives from Durbar division reportedly moved to the scene and took mort

inves
Bu
cease
on t
lease
acco
junct
lowe
carri
The
repor
day,

In
a lin
Sun
gath
alert
ary foun

W

THE State
has with tratic
the e
from educ
upon
rest.
Go
state
a 35
of p
and (JAM
swen sente ershi
All
ers C Hou
The
tains swen emat
The
educ
impr
ment
Acc
educ
petu sion
He