

5 die, 15 injured in Enugu, Oyo, Lagos

• As woman loses 3 kids to fire in Bayelsa

OLALEKAN OLABULO WITH AGENCY REPORT

SEVEN men sustained injuries, while three died in a lone crash that occurred yesterday on Oyo-Ogbomoso route at Ijawaya, few kilometres from Oyo, according to the FRSC.

The vehicle involved was a DAF trailer and the victims were taken to the State Hospital, Oyo and mortuary.

In another development, the Enugu State Police Command has confirmed that the 9th Mile-Nsukka highway in Enugu State.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) of the command, Mr Ebere Ama-raizu, said that the incident, which happened on Friday, involved a trailer, Highlander jeep and two other cars.

"At least seven persons sustained various degrees of injuries and were rushed to different hospitals after the crash.

"The team of rescuers included the police, Federal Road Safety Commission and some members of the cause of the accident was yet to be determined, noting, however, that the police had commenced investigation.

Two people were also killed and another person injured, on Saturday, as a sewage truck crashed into two vehicles in Alausa area of Lagos State.

The injured and the trapped bodies were rescued by operatives of the Rapid Respond Squad, who were assisted by officials of the Lagos State Ambulance Service.

A sewage truck, a Merceinvolved in the accident.

A source at Alausa police station, who pleaded anonymity, while speaking with Sunday Tribune, confirmed the arrest of two people in connection with the accident.

Meanwhile, a fire outbreak in the Ogbia area of Bayelsa on Saturday killed the three children of one Mrs Favour Udoh at her residence.

According to reports by the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), the spokesman for the Bayelsa State Police Command, Mr Asin-