Man drowns in hotel swimming pool in Ilorin

BIOLA AZEEZ - ILORIN

A young man in his 20s, simply identified as Daniel, was reported to have drowned in the swimming pool of a hotel complex in Ilorin, the Kwara State capital.

Sunday Tribune gathered that the incident which occurred at the weekend, took place at a popular hotel located along Ajase Ipo Road, Ilorin, Kwara State.

It was also gathered that the lad, who was taken to a private hospital, located along the same road by workers of the hotel, was discovered dead on arrival by the medical team.

Speaking with journalists, the Chief Medical Director

(CMD) of the private hospital (Yusjib Industrial Medicare, Ajase Ipo Road), Dr. Yusuf Abdulraheem, confirmed that the young man was brought to the hospital.

"When the boy was brought to the hospital, he was lifeless and all the vital body signs were not recordable. So, an assessment of brought-in-dead was made", he said.

Abdulraheem also said that men and officers of the Nigeria Police Force from the 'A' Division of the Kwara state police command later came to take the corpse of the deceased to the mortuary of the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital.

Also speaking, the Public Relations Officer of Kwara State Police Command, Ajayi Okasanmi, who confirmed the development, said the deceased approached the hotel to swim before he drowned.

He said the identity of the boy was yet to be ascertained as at the time of filing this report.

The management of the hotel, however declined comments.

Equal citizenship allegation: Court 3 for judgment

Jurisdiction of the court on the matter, among other issues was also fixed for the same date.

In the suit delineated FHC/ABJ/CS/760/201 and filed on September 14, 2015 by five voters from Oyo Central Senatorial district, the claimants are asking the court to remove Sunmonu from office for alleged voluntarily acquisition of the United Kingdom citizenship and compel INEC to withdraw her certificate of return as well as bar her from parading herself as a senator of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

The claimants; Wabab Abiodun, Alhaji Bola Akinyemi, Chief Emmanuel Olajide, Chief Samuel Elegbede and Chief Thomas Ajao joined alongside Senator Sunmonu as respondent in the suit, the Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC)

While moving his preliminary objection before the court, counsel to Senator Sunmonu, Mr Tola Oshobi, described the matter as an election matter which had already been decided in favour of the defendant by the election petition tribunal and the Appellate Court.
