The Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) on Sunday says it has arrested a 27-year-old man, Musa Inuwa, for allegedly punching a 60-year-old man to death.

The Commandant of the corps in the state, Mr Abdullahi Ibrahim, disclosed this in an interview with the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Maiduguri, Borno.

He said that the suspect was arrested at Jidari Polo bus stop area in the state capital.

"The suspect was apprehended by the youth vigilance team known as civilian CTF who brought the accused to the NSCDC command on Feb. 5 at about 9 p.m.

"The victim, who suffered grievous bodily harm leading to his death, was said to have asked the suspect where he can locate a chemist to buy drugs.

"Unknowningly to the victim, the suspect was already intoxicated on illicit substance and told the old man that he was disturbing him.

"Before he could notice the suspect gave him a punch that made him fell forward and struck his head on the concrete pavement that rendered him unconscious.

"The victim, who remained in a critical condition, was quickly rushed to Umaru Shehu Specialist Hospital at that night but unfortunately passed away on Feb. 6 as a result of massive brain trauma," Ibrahim said.

According to him, the case has been transferred to the Borno police command for further investigation and prosecution.
