The Chief Priest (Ohen-Ogba) of Aruogba community, in Oredo Local Government Area of Edo State, Pa Clifford Omosomwan, has been assassinated.

Pa Omosomwan was reportedly shot dead in his residence, at about 1.00 a.m. on Thursday.

The partially blind man was said to have been shot in the forehead.

The community was engulfed in crisis last year, leading to the killing of one of its leaders, Goodluck Uwumahongie, who was beheaded.

In 2014, about five people were allegedly killed in the same community, while houses and vehicles were set on fire.

Edo State police spokesman, Abiodun Osifo, said he was yet to be briefed about the incident.
