

Nigerian troops kill more insurgents, recover weapons

March 14, 2016

Written by: Chris Agbambu - Abuja

TROOPS of 254 Task Force Battalion, 25 Task Force Brigade, in conjunction with vigilantes, have again recorded another feat by clearing remnants of Boko Haram terrorists at Gwashari Village, on Damboa-Bale Road, Borno State.

This was contained in a press statement issued and signed by the acting Director of Army Public Relations, Colonel Sani Kukasheka Usman, a copy of which was made available to the Nigerian Tribune in Abuja, on Monday.

The release further added that the troops encountered some elements of the insurgents, in which they dislodged them, killed and recovered some weapons from their territory.

According to the statement, “during the patrol, the troops encountered some elements of the Boko Haram terrorists, in which they killed one and captured three others.

“They also recovered one dane gun, AK-47 rifle magazine, two knives, assorted drugs and the sum of N142,000 from the terrorists,” it added.

HEADLINES