

One dead, 30 injured in multiple accidents

OLALEKAN OLABULO

ONE person was feared killed and over 30 others injured in a multiple accident that occurred around Iyana Oworo area of Lagos State.

Five vehicles including a truck, laden with a container, were involved in the accident, which happened at mid-day.

The acting sector commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Michael Olopade, confirmed the accident to Lagos Metro.

Olopade also stated that the injured victims were taken to the hospital, while some of them with minor injuries were treated at the scene. The accident was blamed on brake failure from one of the vehicles.

Two Mazda buses loaded with passengers were on their way out of Lagos towards the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway, when the accident happened. One of the Mazda buses was badly mangled by the truck and emergency workers had to break part of the vehicle to rescue passengers.

A Mazda bus with the Registration No XL930 LSD, a Mack truck with the Registration No LND 395 XR, a Honda Pilot SUV with the Reg No JJJ 275 DC, a Mazda bus with the Reg No LSD 969 XM, a Toyota Crolla with the Registration No KSF 431 AH were all involved in the accident
