Two people were over the weekend crushed to death as a truck mangled a tricycle, popularly known as 'Marwa' in Elere area of Lagos State. Two other people, which included the rider of the tricycle were injured in the accident and were rushed to a nearby hospital for treatment. The driver of the truck, Emmanuel George had been arrested by operatives of the Lagos State Police Command and would in the next few days be transferred to the homicide section of the State Criminal Investigations Department, Panti for onward investigation and prosecution. The image maker in charge of the state police command, Dolapo Badmos confirmed the incident and equally confirmed the arrest of the driver.

Lagos Metro gathered that the incident, which happened at NITEL bus stop along Old Ota Road, created panic among pedestrians. It was gathered that the tricycle was on its way to the abattoir, when the truck, a Mercedes model with the Registration No LSR 615 XB, belonging to CY Incorporation Limited ran over the truck.

One person died on the spot while another passenger also reportedly died on the way to the hospital, where she was being rushed to. The police image maker Dolapo Badmos, while speaking with Lagos Metro, said that investigations had commenced on the accident, adding that information available to the police had it that only one of the occupants of the tricycle died.
