The Divisional Police Officer in Eket, CSP Abdulkadir Jamal, on Friday confirmed that four people have died in a cult clash in Eket, near Uyo in Akwa Ibom State.

Jamal told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Eket that police were investigating the cause of the clash.

"We were informed and investigation is ongoing on the cult clash which led to the killing of members of cult groups in Eket," Jamal said.

He called on the populace to always give information to the police to help them to arrest criminals.

Jamal called on youths to stay away from crime, saying that criminals would always be made to face the wrath of the law.

A NAN correspondent reported that the bodies of the dead could be seen at various locations in Eket.

A source, who pleaded anonymity told NAN that the clash was between Junior Vikings Confraternity and the rival Axe Men Confraternity.

The source explained that trouble started at a night club on Ataobong Road in Eket and spilled over to Rescue Point at St. Gregory's area off Liverpool Street.

"The fracas started at Liverpool Street, opposite St. Gregory's Primary school area, called 'Forty-Forty' Drinking Parlor.

"The Axe guy harassed the Junior Vikings boy who was with a girl at the beer parlour and that was where the trouble started," the source stated.

Meanwhile, the Federal Roads Safety Corps (FRSC), Sokoto State Command, on Friday said four people were crushed to death by a truck conveying cement, at More Junction near Federal Science College, Sokoto.

FRSC Rescue Officer, Mr Usman Khaliel, who confirmed the incident to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Sokoto said the incident occurred at about 11.40 p.m. on Thursday.

Khaliel said the heavy vehicle with registration number Kano RAN 705 XA veered off the road and rammed into shops at the junction, killing the victims.

He said that corpses of the victims had been deposited at the Usmanu Danfodiyo University Teaching Hospital, Sokoto.

He said that four other people who sustained various degrees of injury including driver of the truck were receiving treatment in the same hospital.

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT DISCOURSE

Is it true every employee tends to rise to his level of incompetence?

According to Peter Principle, in a hierarchy, every employee tends to rise to his level of incompetence. That means everyone in an organisation rises to a level at which they are no longer productive.

Do you agree with this principle? Is it true that every employee loses their productivity after a while? Why is this so if it is true? Let's have your perspective about this principle propounded in 1969 by Laurence J. Peter.
