TROOPS of 22 Brigade Garrison, Army Headquarters Strike Group (AHQ SG), accompanied by some Civilian Joint Task Force (JTF) on fighting patrol to Boboshe, Garna, Kyare, Kadawu, Gineba and Ajiri, arrested six Boko Haram terrorists and recovered Improvised Explosive-making devices on Sunday.

Although the fighting patrol team found Boboshe village virtually empty, it, however, recovered eight industrial gas cylinders and five regular gas cylinders at a primary school being used for making IEDs and also recovered a pick-up vehicle.

Army spokesman, Colonel S.K. Usman, said the patrol team captured three Boko Haram terrorists at Kadawu and recovered four motorcycles, three bicycles, one solar panel and two liquid herbicides.

At Garna, he said the troops also captured three terrorists and recovered seven locally-made guns from them.

In a related development, troops of 152 Task Force Battalion, in conjunction with troops of Sector 1 of Multinational Joint Task Force, on Sunday, carried out clearance operation in suspected hideouts of Boko Haram terrorists around Madawaya general area, cleared an Improvised Explosive Device (IED)-making factory, killed 15 terrorists and captured some weapons.

Colonel Usman said the troops cleared terrorists in Madawaya, Jere, Kardile, Koujili, Ngenere and Maksamari, as well as Douse, Bembem, Zombulum and Taraji villages.

In addition, the troops recovered several vehicles and motorcycles.

They also discovered and destroyed the Boko Haram terrorists' IED-making factory at Bula Umara and killed 15 terrorists in the same area.

In addition, the troops recovered an AK-47 rifle, four fully loaded magazines with 7.62mm ammunition, two power generating sets, welding machines, assorted batteries and solar panels.

He added that other items recovered included drums of beans and other grains, as well as Bandalier.

The gallant soldiers also rescued 275 people held hostage by the Boko Haram terrorists.

One interesting thing was that one of the rescued people gave birth to a boy shortly after their liberation. Both mother and the child are doing fine.

The troops have continued with their clearance operations of other suspected hideouts of the Boko Haram terrorists in their areas of operations.
