TROOPS of 1 Brigade Nigerian Army operating under the auspices of Operation Mesa, in Zamfara State, have raided suspected cattle rustlers and armed bandits camp at Yan Mangu forest, near Dandindin village, Maru Local Government Area of Zamfara State.

The troops also arrested two bandits and recovered an AK-47 rifle, AK-47 rifle magazine loaded with seven rounds of 7.62mm (special) ammunitions, three locally made guns and one motorcycle.

The two suspects were arrested while attempting to flee from the camps, but the troops destroyed all the bandits' camps in the forest.

Meanwhile, in continuation with the special clearance and rescue operations, otherwise known as 'Operation Crackdown' within the Sambisa forest, troops of 7 Division, on Tuesday, cleared Boko Haram terrorists out of their Njimia camp within the forest.

The troops also cleared Boko Haram terrorists camps at Alafa, where they encountered heavy resistance from the terrorists, killing 15 of them.

The troops, according to an information provided by the army, continued to advance through Alafa Main, Alafa Extension and Alafa Yaga-yaga, where they cleared remnants of the terrorists hibernating there before arriving at their main objective, Njimia.

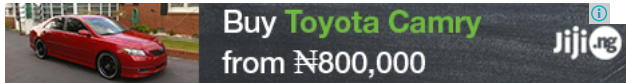

The information has it that apart from destroying the camps, the troops rescued 41 hostages, who were mostly women and children and recovered two dane guns, several vehicles, motorcycles and bicycles belonging to the terrorists.
