

Continued from pg19

4 In the same outgoing month of death merchandising, an Air Force officer in Apapa, decided to be a peace-maker, the devil's way. While trying to broker peace among some feuding fellows, he allegedly shot one dead instantly and critically injured three others. Though the Holy Books prescribe blessing for peacemakers, this officer should be qualified for it the other way round. He threw families into deep agony.

5 Last month, three young men were mowed down in cold blood by some Naval officers in Arepo, a border complete sealed lips everywhere within the system, with the leadership putting up a robust defence for her. While the official immunity continues for her, efforts by the police to investigate the killing were said to have been completely frustrated. Civil Defence Corps leadership has allegedly continued to spurn the demand by the police that she should be handed over for probe.

4 Yahaya (first name withheld) was the peace-breaker Air Force Officer who allegedly on May 3 this year at Westminster area of Apapa shot to kill while making peace. While the Air Force authorities were not denying that he shot and killed another human being, their defence for not releasing him for justice was that the shooting incident occurred when he was being attacked by some traders where he had gone to buy a mobile phone.

It was also gathered that officials who