

Police arrest killers of DSP in Delta

ALPHONSUS AGBORH - ASABA

POLICE in Delta State have arrested some persons in connection with the killing of a Deputy Superintendent of Police, Gabriel Olisa, at Abuator Village, near Aboh, in Ndokwa East Council Area of the state.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Celestina Kalu, on Monday, stated that the force would not leave any stone unturned in its resolve to unearth the murderers of the young police officer.

DSP Olisa of the Kogi State command was shot at close range by a suspected hired assassin in the presence of his wife, at about midnight on the fateful day shortly after the marriage ceremony of his younger sister.

The son of a retired police officer, Mr Napoleon Olisa, the leader of the Abuator community, the late police officer who was promoted to the new rank three weeks ago, was trailed by the gunman to his house after the party.

LASIEC new chairman, Philips to embark on tour of 57 LGs, LCDAs

BOLA BADMUS- LAGOS

NEWLY appointed Chairman, Lagos State Independent Electoral Commission (LASIEC), Honourable Justice Ayo-tunde Adeyoola Philips, has revealed plans of the commission to embark on a tour of 20 Local Governments (LGs) and 37 Local Council Development Areas (LCDAs) of the state.

This was just as she promised that the commission would conduct free, fair and credible elections into all the 57 council areas in the state.

Philips disclosed this while speaking at a meeting with electoral commissioners and the permanent secretary of the commission, saying the purpose of the tour was to enable members of the commission to familiarise themselves with the terrain in the various parts of the state, in preparation for the conduct of the forthcoming poll in the 57 council areas.

According to her, the tour would also afford members the opportunity to assess the state of offices allocated to electoral officers of the commission in the various local government and local council development areas.