

"I sincerely believe that the Cycles one and two trainings through the ASEI-PDSI approach," he said.

their counterpart funds and teachers.

Anambra: 3 die, landlord, 3 others injured as 2-storey building collapses

SUZY ORUYA - ONITSHA

A two-storey building under construction at Ikenga Ndiagu Village in Ogidi, Idemili North Local Government Area of Anambra State, on Tuesday, at 4:30 p.m., collapsed, leaving three persons dead, while four others sustained varying degrees of injury.

According to an eyewitness, the bodies of the casualties in the tragic incident had been deposited at Iyi-Enu Mission Hospital morgue, adding that three others in critical condition are at the intensive care of the hospital.

As of press time on Wednesday, sources told newsmen that a rescue team was still combing the area of the incident for victims who were either dead or alive.

The source also disclosed to newsmen that the landlord of the collapsed building that had reached second floor, who was inspecting work on the second floor of the building when the incident occurred, had been arrested by the police because the building had no approved government plan.

Efforts to reach the Divisional Police Officer at Ogidi, on phone, Hassan Musa, proved abortive.

However, a senior police officer who preferred anonymity, confirmed the incident, saying investigation into the incident was ongoing.

requesting increase

Also, the City District (AEDC) ment signor, Registrar, Abimbola customer any insur planned

Meanwhile the Niger gress, Ayuba W the ruling judgment on Wednesday NERC a obey the revert to immediate