

4 bank robbers meet Waterloo in Delta

EBENEZER ADUROKUYA - Warri

FOUR robbery suspects were, Monday afternoon, gunned down during a shoot-out with operatives of the Nigeria Police, Warri Area Command.

The incident occurred on Ajamimogha Road, the heart of Warri, in Warri South Local Government Area of the state.

The robbery suspects, it was gathered, specialised in dispossessing bank customers of their hard-earned money at ATM points in the city.

One of the felled suspects, popularly known as Ovie, was described as very notorious in the city.

They were said to be executing their act using a Pas-sat car when luck ran out of them, as men of the Anti-Robbery Squad from A-Division swooped on them.

A witness, who spoke to Metro at the scene of the gun duel, said the whole area was like a war zone while the and ammunition were recovered from the daredevil hoodlums.

When contacted by Metro, the police image maker, Delta Police Command, Celestina Kalu, said that two locally made double barrel cut-to-size and six live cartridges were recovered from

Gunmen kill traditional ruler in Benue