

Adejobi also said the cultists were “in large number, which created panic in the area and that they have confessed to many killings, including the gruesome murder of one Niyi (surname unknown) a.k.a Neyo, the then number one man of Aiye confraternity in Ifo area of Ogun State.

“In a bid to overthrow Niyi, the former cult leader was axed to death by the duo and others at large, at the Western City Street in Ifo, Ogun State on September 29.”
