Rann bombardment: Troops kill 15 terrorists, recover arms

NIGERIAN troops have killed 15 members of the Boko Haram terrorists, who were part of insurgents responsible for the mistaken deployment of rockets by the Nigerian Air Force in Rann, on Tuesday.

They also captured one terrorist suspected to be a foreigner.

The Chief of Army Staff, Lt.-Gen. Tukur Buratai, confirmed the killing and capture of the terrorists in Rann, when he paid an operational visit to troops of 3 Battalion.

He said the insurgents came again to the town in two gun trucks, on Thursday, at about 6p.m. to attack, but were repelled by the soldiers, who killed 15, while others escaped with one gun truck.

He said the troops recovered the other truck with weapons, including a General Purpose Machine Gun, three AK47 and ammunition.

Buratai recalled that last Tuesday's incident, the Air Force component of the Operation Lafiya Dole, based on intelligence that the terrorists had infiltrated Rann with intent to attack, deployed the rockets.

He, however, regretted that the weapons mistakenly hit IDPs camps in the town, killing more than 50 civilians and wounding many others.
