Robbers kill mum, 17-month-old daughter

THE Sokoto State Police Commissioner, Mr Mohammed Abdulkadir, on Wednesday confirmed the killing of a 17-month-old girl and her mother by armed robbers at Gundumi forest, on Sokoto-Isa Road, on February 26.

Abdulkadir, who made the confirmation to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Sokoto said: "I can confirm the dastardly killing of the baby and her mother.

"We have since deployed more patrol teams on the road to redress the ugly trend of the resurgence of the activities of armed robbers along the road, especially near the forest.

"We have also intensified efforts to trail the fleeing armed robbers, with a view to bringing them to book."

Abdulkadir also confirmed the surrender of some arms by 27 repentant bandits in Isa Local Government Area of the state.

The Police Commissioner enumerated them to include AK-47 rifles, pump-action guns and pistols, among others.
