TROOPS of Operation Lafiya Dole, on clearance operations at Dissa and Patawe areas of Borno State, on Tuesday, killed six members of Boko Haram terrorists.

Similarly, the logistics supplier of the group was ambushed at a crossing point around Daushe village on Wednesday, according to the Nigerian Army.

The particular troops drawn from the 192 Battalion, 26 Task Force Brigade, deployed for Operation Lafiya Dole, carried out the clearance operation of suspected Boko Haram terrorists' hideouts.

A statement, on Wednesday, from the Nigerian Army, through the Director, Army Public Relations,

Brigadier General Sani Usman, confirming the development, said "during the operation, the troops neutralised six Boko Haram terrorists and wounded several others."

"They also recovered an AK-47 rifle, one AK-47 magazine loaded with nine rounds of ammunition."

According to the statement, 22 rounds of 7.62mm (NATO) ammunition, three bicycles and three bags of groundnuts as well as N29,000 were recovered from one of the terrorists.

"The team recovered a bag of sorghum, basketful of provisions and other sundry items. The troops also rescued 36-year-old woman with gunshot wounds," the statement added.
