

2 die, 8 injured in Sango-Ota auto crash

THE Ogun State command of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) has confirmed the death of two persons while eight others sustained injuries in an accident along the Ilo-Awela Road at Sango-Ota in Ogun on Thursday, the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) has reported.

The Unit Commander, Mr Adekunle Oguntoyinbo, made the confirmation while speaking on the development in Sango-Ota.

He said the accident, which he blamed on brake failure, occurred at about 8.20 a.m.

Oguntoyinbo said the incident involved two vehicles, one of which was a commercial bus.

He said that the brake of the commercial bus failed and it rammed into a bus at the toll gate area, resulting in the death of two persons and injuring eight others.

The unit commander said that the bodies of the dead had been deposited at the morgue of Ota General Hospital in Sango-Ota, while the injured persons were also receiving treatment at the same hospital.

Oguntoyinbo advised motorists to ensure that their vehicles were in good condition before putting them on the roads.
